City Manager's Office

Memorandum

TO: HONORABLE MAYOR &
CITY COUNCIL

FROM: Debra Figone

SUBJECT: City Manager's Weekly Report

DATE: November 12, 2010

INFORMATION

Due to the upcoming Thanksgiving Holiday, the November 26 edition of the CMO Weekly will be cancelled. The CMO Weekly will resume on December 3, 2010.

Police Chief Recruitment Outreach Update—A key feature in informing the selection process for our City's next Police Chief continues to be community input. Through November, Staff and I continue to be actively engaged in receiving input by attending meeting focused on the recruitment that are hosted by various community organizations. At three Community meetings held this week, led by the Asian American Center of Santa Clara County, the DeAnza College Institute of Community and Civic Engagement and People Acting in Community Together (PACT), we heard insights by community members on the types of experiences and abilities that they would like to see in their new Police Chief. We welcome this partnership and continue to be available for any further opportunities for collaboration. For the remaining weeks of November, Staff and I are in the process of scheduling a workforce coffee talk with members of the Black Police Officer's Association to gather their input.

I have attached a list that details the number of responses received from the community online survey, workforce survey and an approximate number of attendees at Police Chief recruitment-focused community meetings. This list of stakeholders who are currently part of the broader outreach efforts is available on the City's website, and is updated each Friday. If you would like to suggest additional groups or stakeholders, please contact Deputy City Manager Deanna Santana at 535-8280.

Phase I Reuse Proposals to be Reviewed – On November 17, the Community Center Reuse Advisory Task Force will review the operation proposals recommended by the Reuse RFI Community Panel for six high-need locations . The six sites (Alma Youth/Senior Center, Alviso Youth Center, Alum Rock Youth Center, Gardner Community Center, Starbird Youth Center, and Washington United Youth Center) are considered Phase I of the 2010 Reuse Request for Interest (RFI). Staff anticipates releasing Phase II; which encompasses the remaining 16 sites on the Reuse list, by November 30. The filing deadline will be extended through mid-January to compensate for the Thanksgiving and December holiday schedules. Staff will present a Reuse status report on Phase I at the Neighborhood Services & Education Committee meeting of December 9, as well as an Information Memorandum on the status of Phase II in early 2011. For more information, contact Angel Rios, Deputy Director, PRNS at 535-3576.

Aquatics Services Proposals Due November 19-- Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services (PRNS) issued a Request for Interest (RFI) for aquatic services late last month seeking operators with an interest in maintaining aquatic programs at the City's seven aquatic facilities. The purpose of the RFI is to communicate the availability of the facilities and to solicit partnership proposals from organizations able to provide aquatic services at affordable rates to the San Jose community. The proposals are due on Friday, November 19; staff anticipates that the review process will be completed by Tuesday, November 30. For more information, contact Angel Rios, Deputy Director, PRNS at 535-3576.

work2future Hosts Honor a Vet, Hire A Vet— On November 4, the "Honor a Hero Hire a Vet Job and Resource Fair" was successful event held by work2future and other veteran service providers at the San Jose Airport Garden Hotel. There were over 40 employers and 20 community organizations in attendance to assist an estimated 275 jobseekers. For more information, contact Jeff Ruster, Deputy Director, Office of Economic Development, at 535-8183.

work2future Receives a $150,000 Grant from San Jose/Evergreen Community College as Part of the Green Innovations Grant—The Workforce Institute, the contract education division of the San Jose/Evergreen Community College District (SJECCD), was recently awarded a workforce development grant from the Employment Development Department (EDD) to run the Green Innovation Challenge Program. The SJECCD in turn has awarded work2future a $150,000 grant to provide case management and job development services for work2future clients in energy efficiency fields. For more information, contact Jeff Ruster, Deputy Director, Office of Economic Development, at 535-8183.

Recommendations for Proposed Plastic and Paper Bag Regulation to be Presented at Open Community Meeting—On November 18, from 6:00-7:00 p.m. The meeting is being hosted by the City's Environmental Services Department and will be held at San José City Hall (200 E. Santa Clara St.), in conference room W-119. Newspaper announcements in multiple languages, postings on the City's Facebook page, website, newsletters as well as flyers were distributed inviting community members and retailers to participate in the meeting. In addition, on Wednesday, November 17, at 6:30 p.m., the Planning Commission will be considering the Environmental Impact Report. Please visit www.sanjoseca.gov/planning/hearings to confirm when this agenda item will be heard. For more information, contact Arleen Arimura, Communications Manager at 975-2557.

Project Homeless Connect – On November 3, the first Project Homeless Connect event, which focuses on the challenges and barriers people experience in obtaining information and resources to end homeless episodes took place at the Opportunity Center in Palo Alto. The event brought together 17 service organizations and over 120 participants. Attendees took advantage of housing assistance and case management, flu shots, SSA services, haircuts, dental services, financial aid and employment opportunities. Project Homeless Connect events will continue to focus on specific regions throughout the County. November events include Wednesday, November 17, in Southeast San José, and Monday, November 29, in Gilroy. For more information, contact Jacky Morales-Ferrand, Assistant Director of Housing, at 535-3855.

2nd Anniversary of the Medical Respite Center – On November 10, Destination: Home celebrated the second anniversary of the Santa Clara County Medical Respite Program, a public/private partnership, at EHC LifeBuilders Boccardo Reception Center. Since its inception in December 2008, the 15-bed Santa Clara County Medical Respite Program has served 215 homeless patients and saved the hospital system over $2 million. The Program creates a safe, clean environment for recuperation after homeless patients are discharged from a hospital, and links homeless men and women to benefits and housing. Over 95% of the clients who complete their stay in the Medical Respite Program leave the program and enter permanent or transitional housing effectively breaking the cycle of homelessness. It is estimated that the Medical Respite Program has freed up over 785 days of hospital beds that would have been used by homeless patients. The program is operated in partnership with Valley Healthcare for the Homeless, the Hospital Council of Northern California and EHC LifeBuilders. For more information, contact Leslye Corsiglia, Director of Housing, at 535-3851.

Online Payments for Multiple Housing Inspection Program—The City's Multiple Housing Inspection Program conducts periodic routine inspections of multi-family dwellings to ensure compliance with housing, health and safety codes. The program also responds to service requests and provides community outreach and education to property owners, managers and tenants. The Code Enforcement Division within Planning, Building and Code Enforcement (PBCE) conducts these inspections and bills property owners annually for this service. With this year's invoices, PBCE is providing customers the ability to pay online through PBCE's online permit website.

Approximately 87% of the 6,562 invoices are $1,000 or less. With the ability to pay online, customers will now be able to quickly and easily pay their fee, saving many hours of staff time processing checks. For more information, contact Michael Hannon, Deputy Director, Code Enforcement, at 535-7884.

Free Training on the 2010 California Building Standards Codes—On November 6, to help the Development Community prepare for the 2010 California Building Standards Codes that will take effect on January 1, 2011, Planning Building and Code Enforcement's Building Division conducted a one day free training seminar. The Seminar was open to the public and held in Council Chambers. A total of 102 building design professionals and contractors attended the Seminar. The Seminar provided a forum for professional interaction among attendees and City staff as well as an opportunity for our customers to see the practical application of technical knowledge by staff. For more information, contact Ed Tolentino, Chief Building Official, at 535-7791.

work2future Honored by U.S. Department of Labor for Youth Workforce Collaboration—work2future has been identified as a best practice by the U.S. Department of Labor as an example of how Work Investments Boards (WIB) and TANF agencies can work together to develop subsidized summer work experience programs for at-risk youth. The work2future program allowed 654 teens between the ages of 15-17 who were eligible for the free and reduced school meal program to participate in a paid summer work experience organized and operated by work2future directly. For more information, contact Jeff Ruster, Deputy Director, Office of Economic Development, at 535-8183.

Award of Merit for Best Practices Presented to Envision San Jose 2040 Community Engagement Program—On November 2, the City's Department of Planning, Building and Code Enforcement received the American Planning Association (APA) California Chapter 2010 Award of Merit for Best Practices recognizing the major efforts by the City to involve the community in the Envision 2040 General Plan Update process. The award noted the use of social media such as Facebook and WikiPlanning to engage community members who otherwise would not participate. The award also recognized unique tools to help the community visualize the different land use scenarios such as using Lego blocks to show different uses and levels of density. The award now allows the City to compete at the national level for recognition in Boston in 2011. For more information, contact Laurel Prevetti, Assistant Director, at 535-7901.

East San Jose Carnegie Branch Library Architecture Honored—On October 27, the Santa Clara Valley Chapter of the American Institute of Architects awarded the East San Jose Carnegie Branch Library the 2010 Citation Award as a Distinguished Building in the adaptive re-use/renovation project category. This recognition signifies a library project that successfully met the challenges associated with the renovation and addition of a new 10,220 square foot facility to a historically significant building listed with both the National Register of Historic Places and the Historic Landmarks Commission of San José. This award also follows the recent achievement of a LEED Silver rating in September 2010. For more information, contact Kathi Forman, Associate Engineer, Public Works at 535-8304.
