PURPOSE:

The role of the Creative Ambassador is to champion the power of creative expression and engage members of the public in finding their own creative voice. The Creative Ambassador's efforts will seek to recognize, celebrate, and promote diverse creative experiences citywide.

BACKGROUND:

The Creative Ambassador Program was launched in 2018 as a pilot project under the Office of Cultural Affairs' (OCA) San Jose Creates and Connects initiative to connect San Jose residents across communities and within neighborhoods through creative participatory experiences. Through San Jose Creates and Connects, OCA seeks to make the arts integral to residents' everyday lives by focusing on place-based opportunities for creative expression and connection throughout San Jose, showcasing the rich texture of its cultural landscape. The development of this initiative was informed by the national Creating Connections research on the role of creative expression in fostering meaningful connections with people, our community, and ourselves. OCA's objectives with San Jose Creates and Connects are for residents to see the arts as a way to celebrate their neighborhoods, connect with their neighbors, and have their voices heard. This initiative also celebrates the role of arts and cultural organizations, artists, and artist-run businesses in communities as cultural producers, teachers, neighborhood anchors, and community organizers.

SCOPE OF WORK:

Creative Ambassadors will serve a one-year term, between January 1, 2024 and December 31, 2024, during which time they will complete the following scope of work:

- 1) Promote the importance of creative expression in everyday life. The Ambassador is expected to:
 - a) Have an active social media presence willing to use the #408Creates hashtag and @sjculture to promote creative expression.
 - b) Partner with OCA in promoting participation in the month-long WeCreate408 challenge.
 - c) Contribute an article on the topic of creative expression to OCA's newsletter.
 - d) Participate in media interviews as requested.
 - e) Act as a representative of cultural expression at local events and meetings to engage with residents as requested (up to 5 events, maybe virtual or in-person).
- 2) Produce a creative hands-on project in San Jose that engages the public in creative expression. Project must be open to the public and be participatory in nature. A proposal for the Creative Expression Project must be presented to OCA for approval before implementation. All projects must comply with Santa Clara County Public Health orders.
- 3) Attend quarterly Creative Ambassador meetings.

COMPENSATION:

Up to five Creative Ambassadors will be selected for the 2024 term. Each Ambassador will receive a stipend of $9,500 to develop and implement an approved creative expression project within the Ambassador's term. Expenses for the proposed creative project will be drawn from the stipend. Funds will be released upon meeting deliverables as set forth in the contract between the Ambassador and OCA. The stipend may be received on behalf of the Ambassador by an organization with which they are closely affiliated or a nonprofit fiscal sponsor.

Please note: If recommended as an Ambassador, applicant or applicant's fiscal sponsor must have a valid business license on file with the City of San Jose and provide proof of current liability and non-owned and hired auto insurance in order for payment to be issued. Lack of required documentation can significantly delay payment and project start dates. Artists that are not already directly affiliated with a nonprofit organization are highly recommended to secure a nonprofit fiscal sponsor.

Ambassadors will be selected on a competitive basis.

Creative Expression Projects supported through the Creative Ambassador Program are not eligible to receive support under another grant administered by the San Jose Office of Cultural Affairs.
