

Questions and answers

These questions and answers will help you get started with your HSA, plus give you information to help you use and manage your account.

Getting started

How do I start using my HSA?

1. Before you can access the money in your HSA, you'll need to accept the online terms and conditions, plus the Disclosure and Authorization Agreement for your account. You can do this once you receive your health payment cards in the mail. Just sign in to the Health Payment Online Portal at kp.org/healthpayment^{1,2} using your kp.org user ID and password, and follow the steps provided to accept the online agreements. You'll typically have access to your HSA money within 3 days of completing this step.
2. Download an HSA Online User Guide under "Tools & Support" for instructions on managing your account online.
3. Update your profile on kp.org/healthpayment^{1,2} to add your email address or mobile phone number. Next, set your notification preferences so you can get important alerts about your HSA by text or email.
4. Download the KP Balance Tracker app to your mobile device so you can manage your account from wherever you are. The first time you log in to the app, your temporary username and password will both be: the first initial of your first name, plus your first name, plus the last 4 digits of your Social Security number.

Understanding your HSA

What is a health savings account (HSA)?

An HSA is a financial account that you can put money into in order to pay for health care services that are defined as qualified medical expenses.³ You won't pay federal taxes on this money,⁴ and you can use it anytime to pay for care. Your account may earn interest, and you can take your money with you if you change jobs or retire.

Who is eligible to set up an HSA?

To be eligible for an HSA, you need to meet the following requirements:

- You must be enrolled in an HSA-qualified deductible health plan.
- You can't be enrolled in Medicare.
- You can't be eligible to be claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax return.
- You can't have additional health coverage that is not an HSA-qualified deductible plan. (There are certain exceptions, including specific injury insurance or coverage for accidents, disability, dental care, vision care, or long-term care.)

You may want to consult with a financial advisor for more information about HSA eligibility.

How do I set up an HSA?

If your employer offers an HSA administered through Kaiser Permanente, you can set up an account directly through your employer. Contact your employer's benefits administrator for details. Be sure to let them know how much you plan to contribute to your HSA for the year, so they can manage your payroll contributions.

As part of opening an HSA, we'll use your name, address, date of birth, and other information provided through your Kaiser Permanente health plan enrollment to verify your identity. This step is required by the USA Patriot Act. If your identity can't be verified, we may ask you to provide a copy of your driver's license or other identifying documents. If you receive a request from our Health Payment Services team for additional documentation, please be sure to respond promptly to avoid a delay in the setup of your HSA.

What can I pay for with my HSA?

You can use the money in your HSA to pay for types of care that are defined as qualified medical expenses,³ both for yourself and for your covered dependents. These are described in IRS Publication

502, Medical and Dental Expenses, available at irs.gov/publications. Examples of qualified medical expenses include:

- Eyeglasses and LASIK vision correction
- Hospital visits
- Prescription drugs
- Primary and specialty care visits
- Noncosmetic dental care
- X-rays and lab tests

Who can contribute money to an HSA?

You, your family members, your employer, and anyone else can contribute to your HSA. The maximum limit on the amount you can add to the account each year applies no matter who makes the contributions.

How much can be contributed to my account?

For 2019, maximum annual contributions to an HSA are capped at $3,500 for individuals and $7,000 for families. If you're 55 or older, you can make an additional catch-up contribution of up to $1,000. These amounts may be changed for inflation each year. You can contribute to your account until April 15 following the year for which you want to make contributions.

What is the deadline for setting up an HSA and making contributions?

As long as you're enrolled in an HSA-qualified deductible health plan and meet the other HSA eligibility rules for at least the entire month of December, you can contribute money to your account for that year.

To be eligible to contribute the full annual maximum amount for that year, you must remain HSA-eligible through the end of December of the following year. Otherwise, you'll only be able to contribute a portion of the annual maximum amount, depending on how many months you were HSA-eligible.

How do I contribute money to my HSA?

You have a couple of options for making contributions to your HSA:

- If your employer offers payroll deduction, you can contribute wages to your HSA on a pre-tax basis. Let your employer know how much you wish to contribute to your HSA for the year or if you wish to make changes to your contribution amount.
- You can contribute money online at kp.org/healthpayment.^{1,2} Just click on the “Make HSA Transaction” button in the “I Want To...” section of the homepage to transfer money from your bank account.
- To make a contribution by mail, complete a Contribution Form, write a check to Kaiser Permanente, and mail both to:

Kaiser Permanente
P.O. Box 1540
Fargo, ND 58107-1540

The Contribution Form can also be found at kp.org/healthpayment.^{1,2} Just click “Tools & Support” on the homepage.

Are there any administrative fees associated with my HSA?

Yes. There is a monthly account administration fee of $3.25 per account, which may be automatically deducted from your HSA or paid by your employer. If the average daily balance in your account during any month is $2,000 or more, the monthly fee is waived for that month. In the case of a $0 account balance, the monthly administrative fee would continue to add up and be pulled once money is deposited in your HSA. There are no overdraft fees or penalties associated with this, however.

Paying for care

How can I get account information on my HSA, such as my balance?

You can access your account information online, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, at kp.org/healthpayment.^{1,2} You'll be able to view your balance, process transactions, view transaction history, and more. You can also use the KP Balance Tracker app or call Health Payment Services to check your balance and file a distribution request. Another way to view your balance is to request a cost estimate for services at kp.org/costestimate.

Monthly statements providing a year-to-date summary of your HSA activity are available online. If you'd like to receive paper statements, you'll need to request them and will be charged $1.25 per month.

For tax purposes, you'll also receive a 1099-SA, detailing your HSA distribution history for the year, and a 5498-SA, detailing your HSA contribution history for the year.

How can I add or change a beneficiary of my HSA?

You can add or change a beneficiary of your HSA at kp.org/healthpayment.^{1,2} by selecting “Add Beneficiary” under “Profile.” Or you can request a Beneficiary Form by calling Health Payment Services.

Does my HSA include investment options?

Yes. If your average daily account balance goes above $2,000, mutual fund investment opportunities are available for the amount over $2,000. For your convenience, you can manage your investments online at kp.org/healthpayment.^{1,2} For more information about the options available, call Health Payment Services.

I'm not enrolled in my HSA-qualified health plan anymore, but my HSA is still open. Can I use my account?

Yes. You can use any money still available in your account to pay for care³ for as long as you keep your account active. And if you have a health payment card, you can still use it to make payments. However, automatic contributions to your account will not continue. And if the monthly administrative fee for your HSA was previously paid by your employer, this fee of $3.25 usually will now be withdrawn from your account.

You also won't be able to manage your HSA at kp.org/healthpayment^{1,2} anymore. For online access, you'll need to visit kp.org/healthexpense. If you've used the KP Balance Tracker app, you'll use your mobile app user ID and password for kp.org/healthexpense. If you haven't previously used the mobile app, the first time you sign in to kp.org/healthexpense, your temporary username and password will both be: the first initial of your first name, plus your first name, plus the last 4 digits of your Social Security number. After registering, you'll be able to access the same account information as before. For more information, call Health Payment Services.

What happens to my HSA when I turn 65?

When you turn 65, you can still use the money in your HSA to pay for care. However, you won't be able to contribute money to your account once you're enrolled in Medicare. At age 65, you can also start using your account to pay for things other than medical expenses. Any HSA money used for nonmedical expenses will be taxable as income but won't be subject to a penalty. Those younger than 65 who use their accounts for nonmedical expenses will need to pay income tax plus a 20% penalty on the amount withdrawn (unless they are disabled).

What if I have an HSA with another financial institution?

You can transfer your available money from your existing HSA to your HSA administered through Kaiser Permanente using the HSA Direct Rollover/Transfer Form on kp.org/healthpayment^{1,2}. On the homepage, click on "Tools & Support." You can also choose to have more than one HSA as long as your total contributions don't exceed the annual maximum set by the IRS. For more information about transferring HSA money, call Health Payment Services.

How do I use my HSA to pay for care?

There are a couple of ways to pay for care with your HSA:

Health payment card You can use your Kaiser Permanente health payment card as a debit card either:

- When you get care, or
- To pay a bill by mail by writing your card number on the bill and sending it in

Reimbursement You can pay out of pocket (using your own money) and get reimbursed from your HSA later. You can request a distribution online at kp.org/healthpayment^{1,2} or with the KP Balance Tracker app. Or you can request a Distribution Request Form to mail in by calling Health Payment Services.

Your health payment card

Your HSA comes with the Kaiser Permanente health payment card, which you can use to pay for care.³ You should receive your card in the mail by the start of your plan year.

Where can I use my health payment card?

You can use your health payment card at Kaiser Permanente facilities and pharmacies. You can also use it at any other provider or facility that accepts Visa debit cards. Keep in mind that HSA money can be used only for types of care that are defined as qualified medical expenses.³

What if my health payment card isn't accepted by a health care provider or facility?

If you have trouble using your card, it may be because it hasn't been activated, or because the provider or facility doesn't accept Visa debit cards.

If your health payment card isn't accepted, you'll need to pay the entire amount out of pocket using another payment method.

You can then get reimbursed from your HSA for that payment by following the instructions under "How do I use my HSA to pay for care?" on page 4.

What if I use my health payment card to pay for care that isn't considered a qualified medical expense?

Neither the IRS nor the U.S. Treasury requires the HSA administrator to keep track of an account holder's expenses. That means we don't limit HSA card usage or distribution requests only to qualified medical expenses.

As an HSA holder, you'll be responsible for finding out whether a type of care you'd like to get is considered a qualified medical expense under the tax laws.⁴ If you use your card or HSA money for a nonqualified expense, income tax will apply. A 20% penalty on the amount withdrawn will also apply, unless you're disabled or 65 or older.

Can I use my health payment card to pay bills that I get in the mail?

If you receive a bill for a qualified medical expense and wish to pay it using your HSA, write your Kaiser Permanente health payment card number in the payment section of the bill. Then mail it in to the address provided on the bill. Be sure to keep copies of your Explanation of Benefits (EOBs), bills, and itemized receipts, since you may need to provide them for tax purposes later.

How do I order additional health payment cards?

If you need additional health payment cards, you can order them online or by phone. You should receive 2 cards by the start date of your plan and can order 2 additional cards at no charge. After this, you'll be charged $10 for each additional 2-card order. Sign in to kp.org/healthpayment^{1,2} or call Health Payment Services.

What should I do if my health payment card is lost or stolen?

Contact Health Payment Services to report any loss or theft of your health payment card as soon as possible. Once you report it, your card will be suspended and you won't be responsible for transactions after this date.

If you wish to dispute a transaction, contact Health Payment Services to obtain a Transaction Dispute Form. You'll need to return the form within 110 calendar days from the original transaction date. During the investigation period, you'll be given a provisional credit. If the charge is determined to be fraudulent, the credit will remain on your HSA. If the transaction is determined to be valid, the amount will be debited from your HSA.

¹If you are not enrolled in a Kaiser Permanente health plan, you'll need to access and manage your HSA at kp.org/healthexpense. When you sign in for the first time, your temporary username and password will both be: the first initial of your first name, plus your first name, plus the last 4 digits of your Social Security number.

²It may take up to 9 days from when you register on kp.org before you can access your account through kp.org/healthpayment.

³You can use your HSA to pay for types of care that are defined as qualified medical expenses. These are described in IRS Publication 502, Medical and Dental Expenses, available at irs.gov/publications. As an HSA holder, you are responsible for figuring out whether the particular type of care you want is a qualified medical expense under the tax laws.
