How did you hear about this program? _____

Many of the City of San José's Homebuyer Programs are federally funded downpayment assistance loans. As such, Federal, State, and/or local rules may apply. City staff will screen all loan applications to ensure eligibility for each program and verify the accuracy of the information provided.

The maximum household income must be within 120% of Area Median Income (AMI) for City of San José loan programs, adjusted for household size. The household is made up of all persons who will occupy the property for a period of twelve months after the close of escrow. The City of San José uses the federal Part 5/Section 8 definition of household for federally funded programs, which includes all of the following:

The gross amount of wages and salaries, overtime pay, commissions, fees, tips and bonuses, and other forms of compensation for personal services;

1. The net income from a business or profession;
2. Interest, Dividend, and Net Rental Income, including income from trusts, investments, royalties, and other net income from real or personal property. When the family has over $5,000 in net assets, annual income shall include the greater of the actual income derived from all net family assets or a percentage of the value of such assets based on the current passbook savings rate, as determined by HUD. Assets include the cash value of retirement accounts;
3. The full amount of periodic payments from Social Security (including Social Security income received on behalf of children), retirement funds, annuities, insurance policies, disability and death payments, and other similar types of payments;
4. Payments in-lieu of earnings, including unemployment and disability compensation (even if the payment is scheduled to expire within the upcoming twelve months), workers compensation, and severance pay;
5. Welfare Assistance payments, including those made under the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF);
6. Alimony, Child Support, and other regular contributions or gifts received from organizations or persons not residing in the household;
7. Other Miscellaneous Income including non-documented income earned or received;
8. Armed Forces Income, including all regular, special pay, and allowances (excluding hostile-fire income);
9. Up to $480 in annual income for full-time students age 18 or older (excluding a head of household or spouse); Up to $480 in annual income for adoption assistance payments.

III. Additional Household Members who will occupy the property over the next twelve months:

- |               |           |                                 |
