

ARTICLE I INCORPORATION AND SUCCESSION

SECTION 100. Name.

The City of San José, in the County of Santa Clara, State of California, shall continue to be a municipal corporation under its present name of “City of San José.”

SECTION 101. Boundaries.

The boundaries of the City of San José shall continue as now established until changed in the manner authorized by law.

SECTION 102. Succession, Rights, Powers and Liabilities.

The City of San José shall remain vested with and shall continue to own, have, possess, control and enjoy all property, rights of property and rights of action of every nature and description (including but not limited to all pueblo lands and pueblo rights) owned, had, possessed, controlled or enjoyed by it at the time this Charter takes effect, and is hereby declared to be the successor of the same. It shall be subject to all debts, obligations and liabilities which exist against the municipality at the time this Charter takes effect.

ARTICLE II POWERS OF THE CITY

SECTION 200. General Powers.

The City of San José shall have the power to make and enforce all laws and regulations in respect to municipal affairs, subject only to such restrictions and limitations as may be provided in this Charter and in the Constitution of the State of California. The City shall also have all other rights, powers and privileges which are not prohibited by, or in conflict with, the State Constitution or the Charter and which it would be proper to specifically set forth in this Charter even though such are not herein set forth. It shall also have the power to exercise any and all rights, powers and privileges heretofore or hereafter established, granted or prescribed by any law of the State, by this Charter or by other lawful authority, or which a municipal corporation might or could exercise under the Constitution and laws of the State of California.

The enumeration or specification in this Charter of any particular power shall not be held to be exclusive of or any limitation upon the generality of the foregoing provisions.
