

Donovan Lazaro

Donovan joined the OED after interning at the Mayor's Office where he worked on local planning and development issues. A night-time grad student in the Urban and Regional Planning program at San Jose State University, Donovan is highly passionate about spurring development and facilitating public-private partnerships to drive social good. Prior to joining the City, Donovan worked in the local tech sector and has experience working in both the large company and startup environments. Donovan loves to travel and is always seeking out new places to get a good meal.
