

Digester Gas Compressor Upgrade Project

Two new Digester Gas Compressor skids replaced existing gas compressors that were 40 years old and at the end of their useful life.

These compressors are used to increase the low-pressure digester gas to operate the gas engines used for RWF generators and process air blowers.

These compressors are critical to the wastewater facility's secondary treatment process, aiding in energy production from gas derived in the treatment process.

Digester Gas Compressor Skid