V. Reports

- A. Chair – Ron Muriera: report given. Noted it was last meeting of 2017 and expressed appreciation for serving as Chair since July, 2017. Attend launch of mural with AVAC in Alum Rock district, across from Dr. Roberto Cruz Library; noted it was community-driven project with great involvement of Lick High School students in project. Reported on 10th annual reception in honor of San José's 40 year Sister City relationship with City of Guadalajara, Mexico.
- B. Public Art Director – Michael Ogilvie: report given. Reported that there are presently 3 works under consideration or deaccessioning and is meeting with appraiser to evaluate each: 1) a "mystery" piece, stored since 2006 at History San José; 2) artist Harry Powers' 1992 Redevelopment Agency (RDA)-commissioned piece at Hilton Hotel exterior patio; 3) Hummingbirds on poles on the Park Blvd. median island, also commissioned by RDA, as the attachments are worn out and pose a serious safety risk.

VI. New Business

A. Action Items

1. PRESENTATION: Presentation was made about the Guadalupe River Conservancy's project of installation of sculptures of children for the Rotary Children's Sculpture Walk that are part of San Jose Water Company's 150th anniversary celebration. (District 3)

Key points:

- Installation is comprised of a number of groupings for a total of 12 figures
- Still in fabrication are several works; designs were developed with input by SJ Water Co. going to schools and getting input from children.
- Contracts are presently between Conservancy and artists, and between Rotary (a primary funder of the project) and artists
- Artworks are on City property but have not been officially gifted to City. Conservancy has responsibility to maintain them. May consider gifting them when the collection is completed.
- Figures do represent San José's diversity; local children from various cultural backgrounds served as models.
- San Jose Water contributed $150,000 to the project of which $130,000 was paid to artists for design, fabrication and installation.
- To date the Rotary Club commissioned two installations; San Jose Water commissioned two; four are in process.

Presented by Leslee Hamilton, Executive Director - Guadalupe River Park Conservancy

2. ACTION: Approved the schematic and design development proposal for the End of Watch Police Memorial by artist Gordon Huether. (Citywide)
