VI. Old Business

A. Public Art Committee meeting schedule – consideration of change to a different week.

- Options for changing the meeting day were discussed. All agreed it would be better to not meet the same week as the Arts Commission meeting. All agreed that changing the regular meeting date to the first Tuesday of each month in which there is a PAC meeting was a good, workable idea. Staff will make the change in regular meeting dates.

VII. New Business

A. Artist Selection

1. UPDATE: Selection of artist Scape Martinez for the San Jose Creates and Connects Gateways project for public art projects on three underpasses beneath I-680 in East San Jose. (District 5)
 - E. Sevier gave an update on the artist selection and next steps for the project.

B. Public Art Collection

1. REPORT: Staff report on condition issues with Seven for Seven Trees by artist Roman De Salvo at Seven Trees Community Center (Council District 7)
 - M. Ogilvie reported on the damaged condition of the Seven for Seven Trees, which consists of a group of artist-designed childrens' play area elements.

He reported that due to deterioration several are out of service due to safety hazards and may be deemed unrepairable. Staff will research and may have to recommend that one or more of the elements be deaccessioned from the collection.

C. Other

1. ACTION: Recommended to the Arts Commission the appointment of Chloe Verrey to the Public Art Advisory Committee to fill a vacant seat and complete the partial term ending June 30, 2018, and the reappointment of Barbara Horiuchi for a full two-year term ending June 30, 2019.

- Mvd/2nd: T. Morrill/C. Morrish; Passed. Yes 4; No 0.

VIII. Meeting Schedule

- Staff reported that the next regular meeting (with the meeting date change) scheduled for Tuesday, April 4 is cancelled.
- THE NEXT PAC MEETING is TUESDAY, MAY 2 at 5:30 PM, CITY HALL, COUNCIL WING ROOM W-119

IX. Adjournment

- Meeting was adjourned at 7:07 p.m. by Chair Ron Muriera.
