Hi Kieulan - Thank you for this announcement. I have great interest in vehicle miles travelled policies (which I think are ineffective because our restrictions on development push growth into the Salinas and Central Valles). However, I teach Monday nights (and Wednesday nights). Therefore, I will not be able to present my views at this meeting.

The comment I sent the task force on Coyote Valley a few days ago does contain data showing how ineffective and perhaps even counterproductive our vehicle miles travelled policy is. Vehicle miles travelled policy will be productive only in the context of a larger plan that dramatically increases housing production. Until that time, it should be suspended.
