Artists: Andrew Kong Knight, Morgan Bricca, Jane Kim, Megan Stevens, Vanessa Stafford and Daniel Aguilera Jimenez

December 2018

TJ Martin and Fontana Parks, San José, CA / Council District 10

ABOUT THE PROJECT

Members of the TJ Martin and Fontana Park Board and community initiated this mural project to enhance the water retention vaults in their park and help reduce graffiti. The neighborhood review panel unanimously selected artists Andrew Kong Knight, Morgan Bricca, Jane Kim, Megan Stevens, Vanessa Stafford and Daniel Aguilera Jimenez to perform the work for their diverse representation of nature and wildlife. All the artists met with the community to gather information to help inspire their designs and to present their design concepts. Twelve (12) water retention vaults were enhanced with murals.

ABOUT THE PUBLIC ART PROGRAM

The City of San José Public Art Program seeks to build community identity by initiating artworks and exhibitions that enhance the civic landscape and experience. Through active community engagement, public art strives to reflect the City's diversity, historic richness, and envision its present and future.

The Public Art Program is part of the City's Cultural Affairs, a division of the Office of Economic Development. The Public Art Program was established by a 1984 municipal ordinance that provides public art through funding from City capital improvement projects and eligible private development.
