Long-range Transportation Planning

- Move San Jose Plan
  - Move San José (“The Plan”) lays out a new approach for transportation and decision making. It brings the bold vision of a sustainable, equitable, and enjoyable San José to life. The Plan establishes a new decision-making process that joins citywide policies, neighborhood improvements, and reinvention of our city streets. The Move San Jose draft plan has just been released and the city is wanting to gather feedback.
  - Read more about our draft plan and provide feedback on sections you’re interested in the survey questions listed here:
