

AFFORDABLE HOUSING COMPLIANCE PLAN
APPLICATION PACKET FOR THE INCLUSIONARY HOUSING ORDINANCE (IHO)
For Projects Complete on or after May 1, 2021

Affordable Housing Programs

The City of San José has demonstrated a commitment to ensure that affordable housing is available to moderate, low, and very-low-income households by adopting an Inclusionary Housing Ordinance (“IHO”) Chapter 5.08 of the Municipal Code. The City of San José also has Inclusionary Housing Ordinance Guidelines (“Guidelines”). Developers can find the Guidelines at www.sjhousing.org/IHO

Overview

Developments in San José that create ten or more new, additional, or modified dwelling units, including co-living dwelling units (“Residential Developments”) are subject to the requirements of the IHO, resulting in an affordable housing obligation (an “Obligation”). To determine the extent of the Obligation and whether any exemptions may apply, all residential developments with ten or more units seeking permits are required to submit an Affordable Housing Compliance Plan Application (“Compliance Plan Application”) as described in this packet. Developers who claim their project is exempt or waived from the Inclusionary Housing Ordinance must comply with this process for the claim to be evaluated by Housing Department staff.

The purpose of this packet is 1) to provide developers with background and a general understanding of the IHO requirements; 2) to define what information must be provided for Housing Department Staff to determine the extent to which any Obligation may be associated with the project; and 3) to describe the process of Compliance Plan Application submittal, review, and determination.

Inclusionary Housing Ordinance Base Requirements:

On-Site* Inclusionary Requirement (SJMC 5.08.400)

Residential Developments must include Inclusionary units On-Site for the following:

For-Sale On-Site Residential Development:

The Inclusionary Housing Ordinance requires all developers who create new, additional, or modified for-sale units must provide 15% of the total Dwelling Units on-site in the Residential Development that is affordable for buyers with incomes not to exceed 110% of the Area Median Income (“AMI”) or to comply with one of the alternatives discussed below.

A Residential Development that has tentative map(s) or other map(s) or plan(s) allowing the creation of separately conveyable dwelling units or interests (such as condominiums, stock cooperatives, or community apartments) will be considered Rental until the Development complies with the applicable requirements of the Subdivided Lands Act, consistent with the Guidelines.

Rental On-Site Residential Development:

The Inclusionary Housing Ordinance requires all developers who create new, additional, or modified rental units (including efficiency, single room occupancy, and senior apartments) must provide 15% of housing on-site (or 10% at 30% AMI) that is affordable and rent restricted comprised of:

- 5% for Moderate Income Households (defined in the IHO as 100% of the AMI);
- 5% for Low Income Households (60% AMI); and
- 5% for Very Low Income 50% AMI

If selecting the on-site Compliance Option, the inclusionary housing must not be geographically concentrated in the development and must meet standards intended to ensure inclusionary units are comparable to the market rate units.

The Housing Department will work with the Developer to acknowledge and understand the requirements of their financing plan and how that will impact the compliance option they elect.

A Residential Development that has tentative map(s) or other map(s) or plan(s) allowing the creation of separately conveyable dwelling units or interests (such as condominiums, stock cooperatives, or community apartments) will be considered Rental until the Development complies with the applicable requirements of the Subdivided Lands Act, consistent with the Guidelines.

Summary of Developers’ IHO Compliance Options

For either For-Sale or Rental, the Developer may satisfy their Inclusionary Housing Ordinance through a variety of compliance options to provide units or unit equivalents equal to at least 20 percent of the number of units in the Residential Development. Please see the following chart and the IHO website for specific subchapters of the Guidelines on each Compliance Option:

In-Lieu Fee Structure:

The methodology to determine the In-Lieu fee is now determined based on the total square footage of the residential development. The In-Lieu fee structure is adjusted based on geography for Strong and Moderate Market Areas. A different fee structure applies for projects using the Mixed Compliance option. For additional information on Schedule of fees, please click here.

For more information on these options please visit: www.sjhousing.org/IHO to review the IHO Guidelines.

Affordable Housing Compliance Plan Application

As part of the application for “First Approval” of any development, the Developer must submit to the department of Housing an original wet signed copy of the completed Compliance Plan Application and all relevant attachments (including the Unit Mix Worksheet). If the project is a mix of For-Sale and Rental, attach both Attachment A and B to indicate how many units are for each tenure. All information supporting the qualification for an exemption or waiver must also be submitted with this packet.

The application fee must be paid by check in the amount of $4,029 (as may be adjusted in the annual Schedule of Fees and Charges) and attached to the Compliance Plan Application. The check must be made out to “City of San José”.

“First Approval” means the first of the following approvals to occur with respect to a Residential development: development agreement, general plan amendment, specific or area plan adoption or amendment, zoning, rezoning, pre-zoning, annexation, planned development permit, tentative map, parcel map, conditional use permit, special use permit, or building permit.

No application for a “First Approval” will be deemed complete by the City unless the Compliance Plan application is submitted and approved by the Housing Department. The Compliance Plan must be approved before public hearings on the First Approval and before any permits are issued.

Application Review Process

As a part of the initial permit application review process, the Housing Department will provide the developer an initial response letter with a preliminary determination of the affordable housing obligations associated with the project and a request for an Affordable Housing Compliance Plan.

The Housing Department will use the information provided to evaluate any exemption/waiver claims and review any proposals for satisfying obligations under the Inclusionary Housing Ordinance, if applicable. The Housing Department will coordinate with Planning, Building and Code Enforcement (PBCE) in connection of the review of the Affordable Housing Compliance Plan. Additionally, the Housing Department may contact the developer to request additional information required in connection with the Compliance Plan Application and/or the Developer's proposed method of satisfying the obligation. Failure to fully complete the application and provide all attachments may delay approval of the Compliance Plan.

After review of the Compliance Plan, if the Compliance Plan is complete, consistent with the IHO and Implementation Guidelines, and all required submittals have been provided, the plan will be approved, and the permit conditions will be provided to PBCE and developer. These permit conditions will be made a part of the project's conditions of approval. After this step the planning application with respect to affordable housing obligations will be complete and a hearing may be scheduled.

Inclusionary Housing Agreement

Prior to issuance of any demolition, building or foundation permit, the developer must provide updated information that will allow the Housing Department to confirm ongoing eligibility of any exemption claims, compliance with the selected method of satisfying the obligation(s) and the applicable permit conditions. This information may include, but is not limited to, building plans, tentative maps and an updated Unit Mix Worksheet.

Prior to the approval of any final or parcel map, or issuance of any building permit for a residential development that may be subject to the IHO, the following must occur:

- 1) The Developer/Owner will execute and record an Inclusionary Housing Agreement to memorialize and implement the project's affordable housing obligation against the property, against any property under common ownership or control (may be satisfied by a recording of a covenant), and if other property is part of the Developer's proposed satisfaction of affordable housing obligation, against the other property, senior to any liens with a power of foreclosure;
- 2) If confirmation of the compliance with waiver requirements is not due until Certificate of Occupancy, the Inclusionary Housing Agreement must be recorded against the entire development, any property under common ownership or control (may be satisfied by a recording of a covenant), and any other property used for the purpose of satisfying the project's affordable housing obligation senior to any liens with a power of foreclosure.

Please contact Darius Brown Darius.brown@sanjoseca.gov to answer any questions or discuss the requirements of the Inclusionary Housing Ordinance.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING COMPLIANCE PLAN (IHO)

In order for Staff to assess the potential Inclusionary Housing obligations of a project, the developer must complete this Compliance Plan in its entirety, along with a check made out to the “City of San José” in the amount of $4,029 (as may be adjusted). The Developer should answer each question thoroughly, attaching additional documents, as needed. Please enter “N/A” if a field is not applicable. Only an authorized representative of the property owner or developer is authorized to sign this application.
