LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We, the City of San Jose Housing Department, acknowledge that San Jose sits on the ancestral lands of native people including the Muwekma Ohlone (mah-WEK-mah Oh-loh-nee) people and aboriginal homeland of the Thamien (Thah-mee-en) Nation. We recognize the resilience of native culture and community. Let us acknowledge with respect all indigenous peoples as they have stewarded this land throughout the generations and not forget the painful history of colonization. The Housing Department acknowledges this history as we work towards a more equitable and inclusive future.

What happened at the September 1 meeting?

The background features a photograph of a modern, multi-story building with a courtyard. The building has a mix of red and white facades. The courtyard includes a green lawn, young trees, and a paved walkway. A large blue semi-transparent rectangle is overlaid on the center of the image, containing the title and date. A red triangle is also visible in the bottom right corner of the blue overlay.

SUPPORTIVE HOUSING OVERVIEW

December 8, 2022

Hilary Barroga & Hong Cao
Office of Supportive Housing
County of Santa Clara

OUTREACH

- Engages with people who are unhoused on the street, in parks and other public spaces, and in vehicles
- Acts as an access point for the Coordinated Entry System and for emergency shelter
- Locates people who have been referred to housing programs by the Coordinated Entry System

HOMELESSNESS PREVENTION

- Helps individuals and families who are about to lose their housing to remain housed where they are or move to more sustainable permanent housing

HOUSING DEVELOPMENT

- Increases affordable housing supply, providing a path to long-term housing stability for people who are unhoused and helps avoid future occurrences of homelessness caused by extreme housing costs

COORDINATED ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

- Acts as a front door to the community's housing resources
- Matches people who are unhoused to the community's transitional housing, rapid rehousing, and permanent supportive housing programs

HOUSING PROBLEM SOLVING

- Engages people in common sense conversations to identify creative solutions, unexplored options, and resources to quickly return to housing

HERE4YOU CALL CENTER

- Provides a single point of access to emergency shelter beds and centralizes emergency shelter referrals
- Offers immediate Housing Problem Solving support
- Acts as an access point to the Coordinated Entry System

INTERIM HOUSING

- Provides temporary housing for people who are unhoused and have been enrolled in a Rapid Rehousing or Permanent Supportive Housing program while they are searching for a permanent place to live

EMERGENCY SHELTER

- Provides a safe place to sleep for people who are unhoused
- Provides meals, showers, other basic needs services, and connections to community resources
- Acts as an access point to the Coordinated Entry System

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING

- Provides temporary housing and services for people who are unhoused and seeking a more structured living environment, especially youth and veterans

RAPID REHOUSING

- Provides supportive services and temporary rental assistance to people who are unhoused
- Helps individuals and families obtain permanent housing and increase income so that they can remain housed independently

PERMANENT SUPPORTIVE HOUSING

- Helps individuals and families with disabilities maintain permanent housing through long-term rental subsidies, connections to medical and behavioral health care, and other services

COORDINATED ENTRY FOR SUPPORTIVE HOUSING

Permanent Supportive Housing, Rapid Rehousing, and Transitional Housing

Permanent Supportive Housing, Rapid Rehousing, and Transitional Housing

Coordinated Entry is...

- creating one direction to supportive housing for everyone
- a way to prioritize who gets limited resources
- a process that takes time

Coordinated Entry is not...

- creating more housing and subsidies
- going to house everyone who takes the survey, so keep working with other service providers
