

Trans Day of Visibility Panel

B. PAGELS-MINOR THEY/THEM/THEIRS/NAME

B. Pagels-Minor is a venture capitalist, podcast co-host, activist, and parent. Founder of DVRGNT Ventures, B.PM Consulting, and the Drops Podcast, B. wears many hats between extensive work in finance and technology. B. is a proud board member of Howard Brown Health, YWCA of Metropolitan Chicago, Northwestern Alumni Association, and Outfest and has been honored as a Silicon Valley Business Journal 40 under 40 and Fast Company Queer 50.

JESS CALVERT THEY/THEM

Jess is a trans non-binary pan sexual proud cat parent! A first-generation college graduate, Jess is passionate about trans issues locally and nationally. Working in tech and active in the queer athletic community, Jess is a board member of softball's SJWSL.

KAIKAI THEY/SHE/HE

KaiKai is a Bay area drag performer and cosplay artist with a passion for social justice and community care. They specialize in performances that are often fun yet thought provoking or deeply emotional as a reflection of culture and their own personal feelings. KaiKai is the most recent winner of the High Princx Pageant and a co-host/producer of several shows in SF and the East Bay. The delight in always bringing something new and refreshing to queer art and are not afraid of sharing their story with others.

LOTUS BOY ZE/ZIR, HE/HIM, THEY/THEM

Lotus Boy is a shapeshifting, transgender and nonbinary, unapologetically disabled and chronically ill-USTRIOUS, Chinese-American drag king and anti-disciplinary artist based in occupied Lisjan Ohlone land, (Oakland, CA). Zir work explores gender fluidity, accessibility, sustainability, and healing from trauma. With every performance, ze aims to help the audience learn—or unlearn—something about themselves and the world around them. LOTUS BOY is on the boards of directors for Oaklash, which is the Bay Area's drag festival; the Drag and Spirituality Summit, and the Stacey Park Milburn Disability Justice Fund. LOTUS BOY also facilitates gender workshops and drag performances to high schools around the Bay Area. If you'd like to book him at your school, connect with him on IG @kinglotusboy or email kinglotusboy@gmail.com.

Can't make it on March 30? You can also attend our monthly ERG meeting on Thursday, April 13 at 1-2 p.m. For more info, contact Daniel Lazo at daniel.lazo@sanjoseca.gov