

San José Trail Program

AWARD WINNING PROJECTS

Lupe the Mammoth – Public Art

Lower Guadalupe River Trail
2016 Excellence in Hot-Dip Galvanizing Awards
Artistic Category
American Galvanizers Association

Three Creeks Trail Master Plan

Los Gatos Creek Trail to Guadalupe River Trail
2015 Merit Award - Planning
California Trails & Greenways Conference

Lower Guadalupe River Trail

Highway 880 to Gold Street in Alviso, North San José (6.4 miles)
2013 Best Trail and Bikeway Project
American Society of Civil Engineers (San Francisco Section)

2013 Award of Merit
California Trails and Greenways Conference

2013 Project of the Year; Sustainability / Green Category
American Public Works Association (Silicon Valley Section)

Guadalupe River Trail

Virginia Street to Woz Way, Downtown San José
2012 Award of Merit, Construction
California Trails & Greenways Conference

2012 Award of Excellence
California Parks and Recreation Society

Coyote Creek Trail Master Plan

Story Road to Highway 101 at Watson Park
2012 Award of Merit, Project Planning
California Trails & Greenways Conference

2013 Award of Excellence
California Parks and Recreation Society

Guadalupe River Trail

Airport Parkway Under-Crossing (600 feet)
2008 Award of Excellence
California Parks and Recreation Society

Guadalupe River Trail

Trail, Cilker Park, Coleman Road Pedestrian Bridge
2004 Award of Excellence, Facility Design
California Parks and Recreation Society

Three Creeks Trail

Master Plan, Lonus Street (Los Gatos Creek) to Guadalupe River
2015 Award of Merit, Planning
California Trails and Greenways Conference

Pedestrian Bridge Inspection Guidelines

2011 Award of Merit
California Trails and Greenways Conference

Signage and Milestone Marker Guidelines

2010 State-of-the-Art Technology Award
20th American Trails Symposium

City of San José Trail Network

2010 Exemplary Human Environment Initiatives (EHEI) Award
Federal Highway Administration Annual Award Program

City of San José Trail Network

2010 Transportation Planning Excellence Award (TPEA)
Federal Highway Administration Annual Award Program

Guadalupe River Trail (Reach 6) - Photo by Yves Zsuttu

2011- Photo Context - "Urban Trails and Greenways" category
National Recreation Trail

Albertson Parkway

2010 Award of Merit
California Trails and Greenways Conference

Guadalupe River Trail (Park Avenue) - Photo by Yves Zsuttu

2009 Photo Contest - "Urban Trails and Greenways" category
National Recreation Trail

City of San José Trail Program web site

2007 Award of Merit - Web Site
American Trails Conference

SPECIAL DESIGNATIONS

National Recreation Trail Four trail systems within San Jose's growing Trail Network designated as part of National Recreational Trail System. Learn more about NRT and find San Jose's trails in the national database.

- Lower Guadalupe River Trail
- Coyote Creek Trail
- Highway 237 Bikeway
- Penitencia Creek Trail (Alum Rock Park) - designated October 1973

San Francisco Bay Trail The Highway 237 Bikeway is part of the San Francisco Bay Trail. Design work is underway currently to further develop the Bay Trail in the Alviso area of the city.

Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail The Highway 237 Bikeway is part of the Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail with future San Francisco Bay Trail development being included under that designation.

Bay Area Ridge Trail Penitencia Creek Trail designated as part of Bay Area Ridge Trail October 25, 2008.

Bicycle Friendly Workplace City of San José is awarded Platinum Status as Bicycle Friendly Workplace by the Silicon Valley Bicycle Coalition

Bicycle Friendly Community League of American Bicyclists acknowledges San Jose with its bronze award.