The Housing Element includes five goals that create the framework for how the City of San José will address housing needs during the planning period. Linked to each goal, strategies provide direction for how the City will achieve that goal. They reflect the City's ambition to provide opportunities for a variety of housing at all levels of affordability and types to meet the current and future needs of all residents, and to create equitable and inclusive neighborhoods that support housing choice. Strategies are used here as a general way to describe actions the City will undertake during the planning period. They consist of policies, programs, and activities that the City would do either alone or in partnership with other organizations and the community.

The sixth cycle goals and strategies were developed with and informed by extensive community input, as noted in Chapter 1 and Appendix H. The strategies address issues raised as barriers and problems in the San José market through data from comments by participants in dozens of focus groups, working group sessions, community meetings, and stakeholder meetings. The City's long outreach and engagement started in 2019 and will continue through early 2023. Per the state's requirements, the City's outreach emphasized engagement of members of protected classes and nonprofits regarding those residents' housing and fair housing needs, selected neighborhood representatives regarding neighborhood strategies, and both market-rate and affordable housing developers regarding barriers to housing production. In addition, the general public was engaged throughout so staff could educate on this work, and seek their opinions on the City's draft goals and draft strategies.

The City's five goals are as follows:

Goal 1: An abundant and affordable housing stock

Goal 2: Sufficient housing for people experiencing homelessness

Goal 3: Housing stability and opportunities to build wealth for all residents

Goal 4: Healthy, thriving neighborhoods with access to good jobs, schools, transportation, and other resources

Goal 5: Racially and socially inclusive neighborhoods that overcome past and present discrimination.

Each goal is described in the sections that follow, followed by tables of strategies that would help to achieve that goal. While many strategies achieve more than one goal, they are grouped by the primary goal they would achieve. The tables note additional goals that each strategy supports. Strategies are also tied to the barriers and needs they would address, the input and other plans that supported inclusion of each strategy, City departments involved, type of action, timelines, and metrics by which to measure progress. In the next version of this draft plan, quantitative goals will be identified for those actions that support the City's obligation to affirmatively further fair housing.

Note that some strategies reflect statutory requirements and must be completed. Of the other strategies, most require City Council approval. However, some strategies are presented as more definite than others. This may be because Council has already given direction to staff to do this work, or because certain work is so important to achieve the fair housing and RHNA goals of this plan that these strategies should move forward. Other actions are more preliminary or exploratory in nature, and have less certain wording. The City Council's adoption of this work plan will signify its willingness to commit to the actions contained herein, to the degree that each is stated.

Strategies demonstrate they will have a beneficial impact within the planning period by naming specific commitment to measurable metrics. Where possible, deliverables occur early in the planning period to ensure actual housing outcomes. Strategies are in short-term, medium term or annual/ongoing in Implementation Tables 3-7, 3-8 and 3-9. Strategies include “Timing” information to indicate either the calendar or fiscal year in which staff anticipates the work would be completed. The exception to this rule is for initiatives which are ongoing, such as advocacy for additional resources, which span the entire sixth cycle period.

The “Geo” column in the tables below demonstrates the geographic areas of impact for each strategy. The areas are indicated as follows:

Abbreviation	Meaning
CW/No	Citywide or no specific geography
Site	Site specific (described in item)
LMI	Low-mod census tracts
RECAP	R/ECAPs
RCAA	RCAAs

NSJ	North San Jose
UV	Urban Villages
Red	Formerly redlined neighborhoods
DT	Downtown
DTW	Downtown West
UDP	Census tracts (per UDP analysis) identified as at risk of displacement or where displacement is occurring

City departments that would undertake the strategies work are identified, and outside partner agencies are also mentioned as in the text as appropriate. City departments are abbreviated as follows:

- CAO = City Attorney’s Office

- Fire = Fire Department
- Housing = Housing Department

3.1 Goal 1: An abundant and affordable housing stock

Housing is essential to a healthy life and must be available to everyone at a reasonable cost. San José needs to support the creation of enough homes over the next eight years to ensure there is an affordable home for every household. While the City does not itself build homes, the City can create policies and programs that increase the rate at which homes are built and ensure a diversity of housing types to meet different needs.

Goal 1 strategies focus on both market-rate and affordable housing production (Table 3-1) and preservation (Table 3-2).

3.2 Goal 2: Sufficient housing for people experiencing homelessness

The homelessness crisis in San José and across the Bay Area is growing. In Santa Clara County, people experiencing homelessness were shown in 2020 to be disproportionately Black/African American, American Indian/Alaskan Native, and Hispanic/Latino/a/x. The City is focused on implementing strategies from the Countywide Community Plan to End Homelessness.

The strategies under Goal 2 (Table 3-3) include providing permanent and temporary housing for people experiencing homelessness, funding the delivery of services to people without homes and in service-enhanced housing, and helping to prevent people from becoming homeless. With its partners across the County, the City seeks to do this work with an equity lens, centering the experiences of those with lived experience in homelessness.

3.3 Goal 3: Housing stability and opportunities to build wealth for all residents

With the Bay Area’s housing crisis and the COVID-19 pandemic, renters have experienced far more recent instability and displacement than homeowners. Tenant protections can help ensure that renters are not displaced by unfair practices, speculation, demolition, or other factors. Residents able to purchase a home can achieve housing stability, build equity, and pass down intergenerational wealth to future generations. Unfortunately, homeownership is out of reach for a large proportion of San José households with June 2022 median sales prices of $1.56 million for detached single family homes, and $826,000 for condominiums and townhomes.

Goal 3’s strategies (Table 3-4) focus on ensuring that all forms of tenure, including ones not common today, can provide households with stability and the foundation for a better life. These strategies address renter stability and access, fair housing, tenant protections, and wealth building. [Also note that while Preservation activities that keep existing residents in place are also housing stability measures, Preservation activities are shown under Goal 1 above.]

3.4 Goal 4: Healthy, thriving neighborhoods with access to good jobs, schools, transportation, and other resources

The San José General Plan and state laws express goals to create thriving neighborhoods that are open to all groups of people and that are close to jobs, schools, and everyday services. San José can direct contextual housing development into mixed-use growth areas that includes more affordable homes. This helps everyone have equal access to these higher-resource areas. The City needs to prioritize investment of resources into lower-resource areas, especially those that have high racial/ethnic concentrations and very low incomes, to uplift the areas and ensure they do not fall further behind.

Goal 4's strategies (Table 3-5) therefore focus on targeted neighborhood investments and access to higher-resource areas. Many Goal 4 strategies also cross-reference affordable housing production strategies under Goal 1 that strive to place more affordable housing in neighborhoods where it is now scarce, so as to maximize residents' housing choices.

3.5 Goal 5: Racially and socially inclusive neighborhoods that overcome past and present discrimination

Housing has been, and continues to be, a major area of discrimination in American society, and San José is no exception. There are disparities in homeownership, overcrowding, and access to opportunity. Because of past and present discrimination, there are large differences by race and income as to who owns a home. This widens the differences in wealth between races. Residents in other protected classes also may not be evenly dispersed throughout the City’s neighborhoods. Reducing disparities among neighborhoods requires the City to work intentionally to dismantle existing patterns of segregation and promote fair housing. This goal aims to repair past practices that discriminated by race and other factor, create a housing landscape with choices that allow for equal opportunity for all.

San José has a diverse population to house. More than 40% of the City’s working households are lower-income, and San José’s lower-income residents are disproportionately non-White. More than 20% of residents in the San José metropolitan area are undocumented, and San José residents speak more than 100 languages. For these reasons, it is important for the City to ensure that housing opportunities address the diversity of San José’s population and foster housing choices that lessen existing racial and ethnic segregation in the City.

Goal 5’s strategies (Table 3-6) focus on housing for special populations. They also include systems-oriented strategies such as equity-focused outreach, decision making bodies, and planning and advocacy structures. The systems-oriented strategies put more protected class residents, and their lived experiences, into the City’s decision making process and program offerings. In the long-term, these changes should support improvements in neighborhoods’ inclusiveness and equity.
